MOPS (Mothers of Preschoolers)

MOPS (Mothers of Preschoolers) is a non-denominational Christian group aimed at providing mothers with children ages infant through kindergarten an opportunity to gather together as they experience these wonderful, but challenging, early childhood years. The MOPS group at SOL is open to moms-to-be and mothers of a child of any age. Through bi-monthly meetings, children's play dates, and moms' night out activities, MOPS provides a supportive environment where moms can laugh, cry and embrace this journey we call motherhood.

Our MOPS group meets on the 1st and 3rd Friday ever month beginning at 9:30am. Child care is provided.

For more information please contact Casey DeWitt at cdewitt@songoflifeumc.org or go directly to the MOPS website at www.mops.org.

From the Pastor

Sometimes I am truly amazed by the way God works in the world. During the month of August, we at Song of Life were invited to watch as God brought us together with people of other faith traditions and denominations, so we could witness firsthand our common humanity and compassion.

At the beginning of August, over 20 folks from SoL attended a "Fireside Chat" hosted by our LDS friends and featuring Rabbi Michael Beyo from the Jewish Community Center in Phoenix. In an effort to help us better understand the Jewish faith and some of their traditions, Rabbi Beyo's presentation was a mixture of information, demonstration, and humor. Not only did he help us better appreciate our Jewish roots, but he also inspired me to consider offering a short-term study on the Judaism and its traditions in the not-so-distant future. What's more, following the presentation, I was asked by Rabbi Beyo's wife, Karolyn Berger, who is organizing a series of interfaith presentations and discussions at the JCC, to consider being a featured speaker in May of next year on our United Methodist faith and roots! As one who believes that our diversity is our strength, I of course said "yes!" So watch for more information on that.

Then, at the end of August, we were blessed with the opportunity to partner with our new friends from Central Christian Church in Queen Creek to celebrate Emma Doty's life in a moving memorial service. For those who are not familiar with Central Christian, it is one of several nondenominational churches in the San Tan/Queen Creek area.

When Emma's family realized our worship space at Song of Life wouldn't be large enough for the number of people expected to attend her Celebration of Life Worship Service, Central Christian opened their doors to us so we could hold the service, which I officiated, in their worship space. In fact, after the service, Wendy Esquibel, one of Emma's mom, commented to me how during the service, while seated in the worship space of a nondenominational church, watching me – wearing one of my Clergy Stoles emblazoned with the UMC Cross and Flame – surrounded by family and friends who were not only members of SoL UMC and CCC, but were Jewish, Catholic, LDS, Agnostic, and members of other religious traditions too numerous to name, she was amazed by the religious diversity in the room, and thought to herself "it took a 9 year old girl to make this happen" – to bring all these people together into one place. "...and a little child shall lead them." – Isaiah 11:6

These two events—completely unrelated—speak volumes about the ways we, as people of faith, can partner with folks of faith traditions and other denominations in our community, as we work together to transform the world. Thanks be to God!

Blessings, Pastor Jody

Help Us Spread the Word...

We all know how awesome Song of Life UMC is, right? Sadly, though, it appears we are best kept secret in the Queen Creek community!! But you can help us change that just by taking a few minutes and writing a couple of reviews on our Facebook page and in Google. Here's how:

Writing a Facebook Recommendation/Review

1. Log into Facebook and navigate to the Song of Life United Methodist Church page. If you haven't yet "Liked" or aren't already "Following" this page, click on the buttons to "Like" and "Follow." (If you'd also like to see the posts made to this page pop up first on your newsfeed, follow the instructions in last month's newsletter to "See First.")
2. On the left side of the page, you'll see a link to "Review." Click on that link and you'll be taken to another page that has a box that asks "Do you recommend Song of Life United Methodist Church?" Click "Yes" and you'll be given the opportunity to write a short review. Follow the prompts to complete your review.
3. Keep in mind: the more positive your review, the more likely folks will want to join us in ministry!!

Writing a Google Review

Word has it that a lot of our first time guests actually find us by searching Google for Methodist Churches in this area. And since ours is usually the first church to come up in the search for those who live in the Queen Creek area, we want to be sure they know that SoL is a great place to worship and be in ministry to the community and the world!! So here's how you can invite folks to SoL by writing a Google Review:

1. In your browser, search for Song of Life United Methodist Church. When your search is completed, you will see on the right-hand side what appears to be an ad for Song of Life UMC.
2. In that ad, look for the buttons that say "Website," "Directions," and "Save." Right below those buttons you'll see a star rating as well as a link to Google Reviews. Click on the "Google Reviews" link.
3. When you click on that link, another window will display with the reviews that have been posted so far. You'll notice that our rating is currently 4.5 stars...the more 5 Star Ratings we get, the higher that overall rating will be.
4. At the top of the second window you'll see a button that says "Write a Review." Click on that button, choose a Star Rating (hopefully 5!!) and share a few comments about Song of Life and why you recommend it to those looking for a place of worship. If you have pictures of the church or of some of our activities, you can post those as well. When you're done with your review, click on "Post" in the lower right-hand corner.

Opportunities to Give Back

"In all things I have shown you that by working hard in this way we must help the weak and remember the words of the Lord Jesus, how he himself said, 'It is more blessed to give than to receive.'" – Acts 20:35

During the month of September we have several opportunities to volunteer in our community:

- Saturday, September 7, 7-9pm at Feed My Starving Children. To sign up as a volunteer, go to www.fmssc.org and click on the link labeled "Volunteer." In the box labeled "Looking for a specific group?" type in the Join Code "8D2EZD" or "Song of Life" and select the date desired.
- Friday, September 27 from 8:30-10pm, also at Feed My Starving Children. See the instructions above to sign up, Join Code: 9EVD29.
- Saturday, September 14, 9am at Jose's Closet in Apache Junction. No need to register ahead of time...just show up, ready to work!!

Questions?? Contact Carrie Claypool, cclaypool@songoflifeumc.org

As more volunteer opportunities become available, we will announce them in worship on Sunday mornings. We know your time is valuable, and we appreciate your willingness to give up some of your time in order to help others as a Song of Life volunteer.

Upcoming Sermons

September: Who Is Jesus?

In this series, we will explore the various facets of Jesus: his humanity, his divinity, the things he said, and the things he did. In addition to the sermons, Pastor Jody will provide congregation members with a weekly GPS (Grow, Pray, Study guide) which will help you dive deeper into who Jesus is and why he is important to us as Christian people.

- 9/15: Say What? (Did Jesus Really Say That?)
- 9/22: The Meaning of Jesus' Death

October: Why?

In this series, based on Adam Hamilton's book of the same title, we will explore some of our "Why" questions, and will come away with a better understanding of God's presence in our lives when these "Why" questions arise. Pastor Jody has also purchased a small supply of Hamilton's book for those who would like to follow along in the series, and may offer a mid-week study group time when we can more fully explore the "why" questions in our lives. If you would like to purchase one of the books, please see Pastor Jody.

A Big Thank You

On behalf of the Doty and Esquibel family, we would like to extend a BIG THANK YOU to all who helped out with the Celebration of Life for their daughter Emma, which was held on Saturday, August 24.

For those who shared their culinary talents – Peggy Milk, Melanie Doppenberg, Sara Clewall, Sue Chancellor, Betty Ranney, Teresa Doonan, Nina Yardley, Dee Hodsden, and Linda Burdick (who also organized this effort) – we give thanks!*

And for those who served as greeters – Betty Ranney, John Campbell, Bob Case, Dean & Gail Wolfahrt, and Laura Hauer – we greatly appreciate your extravagant hospitality!

And finally, we want to extend a huge "THANK YOU!" to our new friends at Central Christian Church in Queen Creek. Pastors Kate Hansen and Paul Forsythe, along with Lead Pastor Eric Ehmann, graciously opened their worship space to us once it became clear that the number of people who wanted to attend the service would far exceed our capacity at Song of Life. So thank you Pastors Kate, Paul, and Eric for being such gracious hosts.

The service, which can be viewed on our Song of Life UMC Facebook page, was a beautiful tribute to a young life that was taken from us too soon. While we all grieve our human loss, we know through our faith that Emma is dancing with Jesus in heaven! As resurrection people, we share in Emma's joy as she experiences eternal life. We also give thanks for Emma's earthly life, how her love shone through like a light shining in the darkness, and how, even in death, she brought a community together to share God's love with each other.

If you would like to share a Memorial Gift in remembrance of Emma, you may donate to the Emma Doty Memorial Fund at Song of Life United Methodist Church. Cash or check donations may be given in person or sent to the church. Electronic contributions may be made through our website or our SoL Church Center app.

*If your name is not on this list and you brought refreshments, we were not aware of your contribution and apologize for omitting you from the list. Please let Pastor Jody know about your participation so we can properly offer our thanks.

Where's Waldo?

When our son was in elementary school, he loved the "Where's Waldo" books. He could spend hours at a time searching the intricate images in the books looking for that elusive little character wearing red-and-white striped shirt.

Well, we need your help...not with locating Waldo, but with locating some of our long-lost members, people who joined Song of Life but haven't been actively involved in quite some time.

Every year, before Charge Conference, United Methodist Churches across the connection are asked to audit their church membership records and identify those folks who have not attended or contributed for quite some time. The church then makes a good-faith effort to locate them in order to determine whether they want to continue their membership at SoL...or not.

Once the church has done its best to find these folks, we ask our current members and constituents – those who are currently attending SoL – to help us find them.

Below is the list of members we've been trying to find...but can't. If you know any of these individuals and can provide us with a current phone number or email address, we will contact them in order to determine whether or not they want to continue as members at Song of Life. We are not asking you to contact them...we're simply asking you to help us find them! We'll do the rest! Or, if you know that any of these individuals have moved out of the metro-Phoenix area, we would appreciate knowing that as well so we can remove them from our rolls.

So, here is the list of folks we're trying to find:

Sarah Amschutz	Mary Kohlman
Pam Bentley	Elizabeth Landa
Jenny Conroy	Brian Lemkee
Sonya Davis	Danette Lemkee
Andy Goldberg	Denny Logan
Becca Hayes	Dawn Stanley
Jordan Hayes	Robert Thompson
Earl Johnson	Johnathan Yandle

If you can provide us with contact information for any of the above, or if you happen to know they no longer live in the area, please contact the church office with that information. We thank you for your assistance.

NEED TO ADD SOMETHING TO THE SoL NEWS??? Email your content and any graphic request to info@songoflifeumc.org two weeks prior to the month it needs to be published. You can also request news and events to be added to our website, so be sure to email for those requests as well. Thank you!

Thinking Theologically

When Jesus came to the region of Caesarea Philippi, he asked his disciples, "Who do people say the Son of Man is?" They replied, "Some say John the Baptist; others say Elijah; and still others, Jeremiah or one of the prophets." "But what about you?" He asked. "Who do you say I am?" — Matthew 16:13-15

If someone asked you "Who is Jesus?" what would you say? Would you say he was a prophet? Or a miracle worker? Or a preacher? Would you say he was a troublemaker? A faker? Or a fraud?

If you were to do a Google search using the question "Who is Jesus," in less than a second you would receive back over 671 million articles, websites, videos, blog posts, etc. That's a lot. Apparently, a lot of folks have asked themselves the same question and written an article or a blog, or created a website in order to answer it.

In Wikipedia's description about Jesus (which is often at the top of the list in a Google search), it says "Jesus (c. 4 BC– c. AD 30 / 33), also referred to as Jesus of Nazareth and Jesus Christ, was a first-century Jewish preacher and religious leader. He is the central figure of Christianity. Most Christians believe he is the incarnation of God the Son and the awaited Messiah (Christ) prophesied in the Old Testament. That's a pretty basic description, right? But what do others say?"

In an article posted on the website for a non-profit organization called Crossway, a Southern Baptist preacher named Greg Gilbert described Jesus as A Historical Person ("a man who was born in the first century into an obscure Jewish carpenter's family"); An Extraordinary Person (a person who said things that "caught people's attention," and performed numerous miracles (like turning water into wine, healing people from sickness, and raising the dead back to life)); God ("On a number of occasions Jesus took a name for himself exclusively used for God, the present tense 'I am'..."); One of Us ("The Bible tells us that Jesus got hungry, he got thirsty, he got tired, and he even got sleepy....He not only was human; he showed us what God intended humanity to be all along") and Alive ("Through Jesus's resurrection from the dead, something breathtakingly extraordinary happened. Everything he ever claimed for himself was vindicated. Only the resurrection had the power to turn his own followers—cowardly, skeptical men—into martyrs and eyewitnesses who were willing to stake everything on him for the sake of telling the world, 'This man Jesus was crucified, but now he is alive!'")

In contrast, progressive theologian and member of The Jesus Seminar, Marcus Borg differentiates between the "Jesus of History" and the "Christ of Faith." About the historical Jesus, he writes: "The historical Jesus was a spirit person, one of those figures in human history with an experiential awareness of the reality of God." ... "Jesus was a teacher of wisdom who regularly used the classic forms of wisdom speech (parables, and memorable short sayings known as aphorisms) to teach a subversive and alternative wisdom." ... "Jesus was a social prophet, similar to the classical prophets of ancient Israel.

As such, he criticized the elites (economic, political, and religious) of his time, was an advocate of an alternative social vision, and was often in conflict with authorities." ... "Jesus was a movement founder who brought into being a Jewish renewal or revitalization movement that challenged and shattered the social boundaries of his day, a movement that eventually became the early Christian church." And about the Christ of Faith, Borg writes "After Easter, his (Jesus') followers experienced him as a spiritual reality, no longer as a person of flesh and blood, limited in time and space, as Jesus of Nazareth had been. Rather, Jesus as the risen living Christ could be experienced anywhere and everywhere. ... So it has been ever since. The living risen Christ of the New Testament has been an experiential reality (and not just an article of belief) from the days of Easter to the present. Thus, in the experience, worship, and devotion of Christians throughout the centuries, the post-Easter Jesus is real."

These two perspectives reflect only two of the thousands – perhaps millions – of ways people throughout the centuries have tried to answer the question "Who is Jesus" for themselves. But what about you? Who do you say that he is? During the month of September, I hope I can help you answer that question for yourself.

Blessings,

Pastor Jody

A Contemplative Approach

"The artificial separation between humans and cosmos is at the root of our contemporary moral confusion"

– Teihard de Chardin

Our Contemplative Prayer group – which is being renamed to A Contemplative Approach – will resume its weekly meetings on Tuesday, October 1 at 7pm. The group meets at Song of Life UMC in the Sanctuary. Each evening the group begins with a video presentation, followed by a period of prayer and contemplation.

We will begin on October 1 with a short video presentation based on the Parable of the Great Banquet as documented in Luke 14:15-21. During this series we will consider the question: "What is the kingdom of God like?" Jesus questions the social, political, and religious boundaries of his time. Is God's kingdom beyond these boundaries?

Then, beginning October 22, we will begin a new video series of presentations by Ilia Delio called "Nurturing the Inner Self." With doctorates in Pharmacology and Historical Theology, Ilia Delio is uniquely positioned to address the interconnectedness between science and spirituality. All are welcome and encouraged to attend.
